Good Advice on Hair Culture
How to Stop Falling Hair and Drive Away Dandruff

Once a day, if only for one minute, every woman, every man, too, for that matter, ought to rub the scalp vigorously with the tips of the fingers. The blood supplies nourishment to the hair, just as it does to the skin, and a vigorous massaging gently stimulates the scalp and causes the blood to flow more freely.

Both men and women should be careful in the choice of a hair dressing. A good one used regularly, not only destroys dandruff, but keeps the hair from falling, and causes it to grow profusely and lustrous.

Parian Sage is the hair dressing, grower and beautifier most in demand by discriminating persons. So it is its tonic action on the scalp and hair.

"I large bottle costs but 50 cents at the drug store."
"I have used Parian Sage for some time, and think it has no equal as a hair beautifier and scalp cleaner."—Mrs. William Hoglund, Sault Ste. Marie.

For cuts, poison, chertous, sunburn, itching, etc., apply to the affected part. It is wonderful. Use freely.

An official memorandum issued today in regard to the subject is as follows:

FOR THREE-CENT STAMP

Postmaster-General Is Consider- ing Advisability

OTTAWA, Dec. 2.—Hon. T. Cassin, postmaster-general, stated to-day that he had under consideration the question of issuing a three-cent inconvenience which arises ough the necessity of affixing sepular postage to each letter. It has been represented to the department that the issue of a three-cent stamp would simplify present postage ditions and probably lead to an increase in letter-writing, which is always more or less affected by even the slightest inconvenience as caused

The issue of stamps of the denomination of three cents is said to be subject to certain objections and it is

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

NON-JURY COURT

The last sittings of the non-jury High Court of Justice opened this afternoon before the Hon. Justice Bird.

ALLEGED VAGRANT
Edward A. Terry, a rather stout man, was last evening taken in charge by the police here on a charge of vagrancy. The unfortunate man, who is said to be originally unemployed, was this morning by Magistrate Mason committed to jail for a week in order that friends may be communicated with. Terry claims to be a native of this town.

MURKINS FOR FRANCE
A rather unique cargo passed through here from the west, a consignment of 200 lady dogs from Alaska destined for France, where they are to be used in the mountains as carriers of supplies. The dogs occupied two cars and a third car was filled with animal blankets and other necessities of the campaign. Two keepers were in charge of the animals—British Indians.

AGAIN ARRESTED
A few days ago Oliver P. Rose, a resident of this city, was arrested at Kingston for the charge of kidnapping of his wife, who is living here. The accused was brought to this city and was allowed out on bail and returned to Kingston, where he was employed. A more serious charge has been referred against him, and he has again been placed under arrest at Kingston on the advice of the Belleville authorities to bring Rose back to this city.

VOTERS LIST COMPLETED
Census-taker lists were today mailed in the court hall in this city before the Hon. Mr. Justice Bird, of Hastings County, in his explanation of errors and omissions in the voters list of the Municipality of Belleville. Owing to the fact that there is a local option campaign in the city, the voters list was not completed until this morning. The list was then mailed to the voters in the morning. The list was then mailed to the voters in the morning. The list was then mailed to the voters in the morning.

BEHAVIOUR—BEGINNING AND EARLY HISTORY
PART I
(By Marjorie M. Lynde in The Outlook on Belleville News.)
In a city as old as Belleville, there is so well settled and genuine a feeling of history and tradition that it is difficult for us to realize the fact that the old inhabitants of Belleville were once a nation of savages. The fact is that the old inhabitants of Belleville were once a nation of savages. The fact is that the old inhabitants of Belleville were once a nation of savages.

For there were hardships, a plenty for those adventurers of the early days. The stage was all set for the drama of the struggle for existence. contrary to international ideas and international law. A German soldier shot in battle, not because of his personal crimes, but because he is a representative of a system of government which we believe is antagonistic to the best interest of humanity in general and the Allies in particular. It is not the German soldier that the Allies are fighting but the German governmental ideal.

IF—

If Col. Roosevelt were President of the United States?—This is often heard, especially when two Americans meet and even more likely if one of them happens to be an admirer of Theodore Roosevelt. And when two Americans meet it is quite possible that one of them is an admirer of the Colonel for fully one-third of the people of the Republic are firm believers in Roosevelt policies.

Would the United States go to be engaged in the world war or would the United States still be a strong potential power? Only diplomatic Germany could answer that question.

It is safe to say that Germany would never have been allowed to finish a laughing stock of the American nation were Roosevelt President. But would Germany have tried to do so? German statesmen would have known that Roosevelt could not be played with and it is very doubtful if the attempt would have been made. All the world knows the Colonel, and the world knows that he means what he says.

Had a Roosevelt administration sent such a message to Germany as the Wilson administration sent at the time of the Lusitania murder, Germany would have "sat up and took notice," while as it was Germany simply "yawned" with Wilson and is still at it.

Because, the firm, decisive manner of Roosevelt, people sometimes get the idea that he is rash, but a moment's thought dispels that idea. Almost any boy, either Canadian or American, can tell of several big things that Roosevelt has done, but even the closest student of American life and American politics cannot point to any big mistake the Colonel ever made, no instead of being a humbled and disgraced nation, the United States would still hold its proud place among the nations of the world if—

Canadian wives should take a lesson from Mrs. Constantine, of Greece.

Germany seems to be slowly getting the idea that the Allies will name the peace conditions after all.

Boy-Eid and Von Papen must return to Germany under the protection of the British flag. Talk about litter pills.

Even the "Anti-Roosevelt" Buffalo Express would apparently welcome the Colonel back in the President's chair.

Only fourteen more shopping days till Christmas. Oh well, no need to worry, most people can spend their surplus funds in less time than that.

CAPT. PONTON SPEAKS TO KINGSTON PEOPLE

Address Before Canadian Club on Experiences of Second Battalion—Tells of Many Battles

Captain Ponton, hero of Neuve Chapelle, Ypres, Ghinny, Frezenburg and other engagements, has spoken to the 2nd battalion C.E.F. now home convalescing from wounds, what is considered the finest address the Canadian Club has ever had the pleasure of listening to, in the Frontenac Hotel to-day. Not only was Capt. Ponton a superb speaker, a brilliant and forceful orator, but he proved also that he was a speaker to whom one could listen for hours.

His address, or really his story of what part the 2nd battalion has played in the war up to the time that he was invalided home, was thoroughly appreciated by all present.

He traced the movements of the battalion since the time war broke and until he left them in the firing line to go to the hospital for treatment. Very modestly, he made no mention of how he was wounded himself or what part he individually played in the battles, but one reading between the lines could see that he had more than "done his bit." What is more, he has decided to be a fighting Frenchman, he will just as soon be authorized to will pronounce him so.

Speaking of Salisbury Plain, the captain stated that rather would he go through some of the worst engagements again than spend another winter there, but pointed out clearly that there was no complaining. "This is one thing the Second would not do under any circumstances, no matter whether they were in the trenches or in the mud or in the water or where they were, no complaint was ever heard from the men."

Battle of Neuve Chapelle

Neuve Chapelle was the first battle he described. It was a terrific artillery bombardment with the infantry taking advantage of every opportunity to gain an advantage over the enemy. The Second Battalion did not take an active part in any of the charges at this battle but were protecting the flank of those regiments which were. When the town had been taken from the enemy the Second were to take part in the advance against Lille, but owing to the late arrival of a brigade this had to be called off.

His description of the battle was most interesting. He told of the screaming of the shells which continued for three days amidst a terrific machine and thunder storm. So vivid was his description that one could almost imagine the impressive sight.

A Terrific Battle

Langemarck was the next battle described. Here the battalion lost heavily. Reinforcements were lacking and when the roll of the Second was called only 250 out of the 1,100 answered.

their names. Many were wounded and many killed. It was a fight where the Canadians (the 1st and 2nd battalions) kept back hordes of Germans by sheer pluck and tenacity. They were ordered by the General in command to retire, but it was only when General French himself sent a personal message to the officer commanding the Second that they made their way back and were joined by reinforcements after a three days' fight. After this they were given a short rest, but there was one of fear who would not take the rest, the Captain said. Capt. George Richardson attached himself to a British regiment and the very next day was at it again, fighting back the Hun. This caused loud applause from the interested listeners.

A Real Hero

The mention of Allan Davidson's name by Capt. Ponton was greeted with loud cheers and applause also. He paid a high tribute to the King, who gave up his life, stating that "Scotty" always "played the game," and a feeling of sadness which has not yet been forgotten was felt in his loss.

Praised Kingston Officers

He was loud in his praise of Capt. Richardson and leading from the description he gave, those in the audience liked officer in all the Canadian Army thus far.

Speaking of other Kingston officers he eulogized the work done by Major Macphail, Col. Ross and others and stated that they were all entitled to the Victoria cross, so valuable had they been to the Empire.

Appeal For Recruits

He finished his address by an appeal to those present to each and every one to help along recruiting and stated that it was the duty of each to take a man to Col. C. A. Low for the 10th Battalion.

"What we need more than anything else is men to reinforce the Canadians," Allen said and concluded by saying this war through to a satisfactory conclusion. Capt. Ponton said in conclusion.

Vote of Thanks

"It is without doubt the most touching and splendid address that I have ever had the pleasure of listening to," was one of the many complimentary remarks Bishop Bidwell used in moving a vote of thanks to the speaker for his most impressive address.

The address was given at the Canadian Club luncheon in the Frontenac Hotel; the spacious dining-room being well crowded with members and other citizens. Capt. Ponton was introduced by Capt. Gilt, President of the Club. Kingston Standard.

The bottoms are concave, which collect the richest natural meat juices directly under the fowl; the heat, turns these juices into steam, which condenses all over the meat or fowl and makes a perfect self-basting process.

There is no danger of burning as the bottoms are slightly raised from the oven. NEEDS ABSOLUTELY NO ATTENTION.

When the manufacturer advertises in this newspaper he is entering his coupon. It will take those who get aboard to the station of satisfactory retail. The newspaper advertiser will simply co-operate. And get aboard now, ere the season is over. It is up to the merchants to make that demand definite for their own cash registers.

SEAL-BASTING SEAMLESS-COOKING-PAN
Made entirely complete as there is no chance for grease to collect in the seams and corners. They are perfectly smooth and can be washed out like a dish. The seams are covered, which prevents the delectable meat juices directly under the foil; the heat turns these juices into steam, which condenses all over the meat; and makes a perfect self-basting process.

There is no danger of burning as the bottoms are slightly raised from the oven. NEEDERS ABSOLUTELY NO ATTENTION.

SMITH-DORRIS FOR EAST AFRICA

Now of War and Battle, of The Huron to Command
New York

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Gen. Sir Horace Smith-Dorris, a hero of the Boer war and of the battle of the Marston, was created by Sir John French with having been the left wing of the allied army when the German were pushing back upon Paris, has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in East Africa. This appointment was made by the Secretary of State in the House of Commons today.

General Smith-Dorris has been in service on the Franco-Belgian front for the last three months of the war. He commanded the second British army for a time, and in May was placed in charge of one of Great Britain's six new armies. He returned to London in June. No official explanation was made of his return from the front, for which several reasons were advanced. A vigorous campaign has been fought by the French and British to convert German East Africa. General Smith-Dorris commanded in South Africa a brigade which included the first Canadian contingent. The appointment of General Smith-Dorris means that the British are taking steps to include the first Canadian contingent in the campaign. The British are taking steps to include the first Canadian contingent in the campaign. The British are taking steps to include the first Canadian contingent in the campaign.

THE CHAS. GARSON.
A letter from Chas. Garson, son of John Garson, of Thirar, who is now on the Gallipoli Peninsula.
Dear Dad, Mother and Edna:- This Tuesday evening, having just returned from a brief visit to the front, I am writing you my weekly letter, so here I am, and I am sure you will be glad to hear from me.
We have been having great weather for the past few days, just like our friends in Thirar. I suppose you are all well. I am writing to you from the front, so I am not sure I can tell you much news. THE HOUSE OF GOOD CLOTHES

CALL FOR POLICE

The police had right shortly after 10 o'clock responded to a call, but all was quiet at the place when the officer arrived upon the scene.

A GOOD RECORD

For the past few days the police have been exceptionally quiet, owing to the conditions of affairs about the city. Only one arrest for drunkenness has been made in a week which is a good record.

FIVE FRANC BILL LOST

William McConna, who is now at the front, sent a five franc bill (France) to his young brother as a birthday present which was received Saturday morning. On Saturday night James McConna, another brother, lost the bill, and on account of the circumstances connected with it, the bill is valued much more highly than its face value which is one dollar. He doubts the finder of this bill will return it to its owner as soon as he learns who it is.

THE FRESH DRUMMER

A typical incident occurred on the train going from St. John to Halifax, the guarded railway in Canada a few days ago. You must know that they are very particular in New England and the war spirit runs high. In this morning car were four soldiers who had just landed, and also an American "travelling man," one in whom there is a drummer. The particular drummer was one of those officiously salubrious, inquisitive, and bumptious persons you always find in smoking cars. Like all of his ilk, he didn't know enough to mind his own business or keep his opinions to himself when he was in one's country. He took it upon himself to lecture the soldier: "I can't see, you see, what your efforts wanted to enlist for. The war isn't here. It doesn't interest you in any way. Eight thousand soldiers have already been killed, and you are likely to be. You are foolish to enlist." That's as far as he got. The smallest one of the soldiers, without writing a word, handed off and landed a nice one of the drummer's chin that knocked him flat. When the drummer got to his feet again the soldier said: "Don't let me hear you talk that kind of way."

SIDNEY TOWNSHIP COUNCIL MEETS

Accounts Paid—Medical Health Officer's Report—Belleville Firm Get Order

Town Hall Sidney, Wednesday, December 15th, 1915, Council met pursuant to adjournment.

Present—Chas. Keitchman, Harry, Harry E. Keitchman, Merrille, Fisher, and W. A. Reid, organizers.

Minutes of August 15th and October 15th, meeting read and approved. A communication was read from the Canadian Suffrage Association, re: votes for married women.—No action taken.

Moved by Harry L. Keitchman, seconded by W. A. Reid, That the following accounts be paid:—Jennings & Sharpe (stationery) $11; Hanson (Belleville) $25.00; Morton & Harty (printing) $5.70; The Intelligence (printing) $78.25; Town Hall repairs $785.43.—Carried.

Moved by Merrille Fisher, seconded by W. A. Reid, That $25.00 be paid A. D. McIntosh, B.S.A., for School held in Belleville Township in 1915.—Carried.

Moved by Merrille Fisher, seconded by W. A. Reid, That the Treasurer and the Municipal postage allowance be increased by 75 per cent, on account of the increase in postage rates.—Carried.

The following by-laws were passed through their various stages, signed and numbered 425 and 424 consecutively:

A by-law authorizing the Collector to continue the collection of taxes by law to provide polling places and appoint Deputy Returning Officers and Poll Clerks.

Mr. Hawley Wright, Township Road Dept., presented his report. Ordered, received and adopted.

Dr. H. V. Malone, Medical Officer of Health, presented his report, which reads as follows:—I beg to submit my annual report as Medical Officer jurisdiction. With regard to small-pox, scarlet fever and diphtheria, I believe they are fairly well reported. We had small-pox in two different sections of the Township, but strict quarantine regulations confined the disease to the two localities. Scarlet fever occurred in Glen Mill, unfortunately, at a time when a young man died of tuberculosis. He had only returned from Belleville Hospital a few days before his death, and this case was unreported. The usual visiting where a death occurs spread the disease to the other families. These were quarantined, and it spread no further. There is a very great laxity in reporting and even concealment of the silder communicable diseases, such as small-pox, measles, whooping cough and mumps. I myself saw twenty cases of small-pox, but none were reported to me. The concealment is obvious. Some factored should be devised to stir up some physicians, must housekeepers and nearly all school teachers to do their duty with respect to the reporting of communicable diseases. Anyone who knowingly neglects to report communicable disease is an "enemy of the Province" and should be dealt with accordingly. If the first case of any communicable disease was reported we would have no epidemics. We had recent cases of German measles, case of chicken-pox, 1 case of diphtheria, eight cases of scarlet fever (1 death), measles, 11 cases German measles, eight cases mumps, 10 typhoid, 11 and one death, tuberculosis 3 cases and three deaths.

(Signed) H. V. MALONE, M.O.H.

The above report was ordered read, and Clerk in forward name to Provincial Board of Health.

Moved by Harry L. Keitchman, seconded by Merrille Fisher, That the Clerk be authorized to order 100 No. 3 folding chairs, for Town Hall as per letter from Tibbitt & Son dated Dec. 15th.—Carried.

Moved by Merrille Fisher, seconded by Harry L. Keitchman, "That the minutes of December 15th, meeting be now read and adopted and that Council adjourn nine o'clock."—Carried.
